

DISCOVER WHAT SETS INTRATEK APART

Intratek Computer, Inc. is a national IT service and support solutions provider with core capabilities in:

Intratek is a privately-held corporation with over 25 years of experience providing IT services and support solutions. We have an outstanding track record of providing efficient, cost-effective services to our clients. We are a service provider focused on delivering business-enabling IT services that are responsive, innovative, flexible, and customer-driven.

IT leaders are looking for a partner who will work with them to understand their specific needs and deliver results beyond the industry standard. We take pride in relationships with our clients and strive to deliver the best possible solutions.

- National expert network with industry domain knowledge and technical solution expertise.
- Delivering what is promised by consistently providing a high return on client investments.
- Dedicated to delivery quality support and fast expert service for your business and technology needs.
- In-depth knowledge and understanding of procedures and policies unsurpassed by other companies.